In the BEUMER Group, we aim to deliver excellence in every aspect of our business.

That's why, in 2009, we expanded our range of products, global reach and customer support by acquiring Crisplant, a leading provider of automated sortation technology, control systems and integration services.

Two brands, one company.

Today, as two individual brands working together under the BEUMER Group, we can offer you a new, unparalleled level of service and value.

Our capabilities are stronger than ever and, with our combined experience and expertise, we can now provide you with the most efficient and reliable materials handling and sorting solutions with localised customer support, worldwide.

Together, BEUMER and Crisplant can offer exceptional sorting solutions, an enhanced global reach and localised customer support, worldwide.

Our commitment.

This partnership is a major step forward in our vision to develop the BEUMER Group worldwide and to help your business gain a stronger competitive advantage through our combined products, systems and services.

The BEUMER Group, including Crisplant, have never been in a stronger position to deliver quality, reliability and lasting benefits to our customers.

By acquiring Crisplant we have strengthened our position as the most innovative and reliable supplier of sorting solutions and systems integration services to the world's biggest brands.

Dedication to service and innovation.

Working as one, BEUMER and Crisplant can provide a more complete service than ever with the industry-leading standards you expect. Our offering has expanded, but our vision remains as it has always been: we continue to be your reliable partner in all aspects of conveying and loading, palletising and packaging, sortation and distribution – and innovation is our future.

Trusted, flexible solutions.

Together, we have the largest installed base of high-speed sorting systems and our automated technology operates at the heart of the world's biggest brands in every major industry, from apparel and airports to postal and e-commerce. Companies such as Nike, FedEx, Otto, Hermes Logistics, La Poste, Singapore Changi Airport, Helsinki-Vantaa Airport and more depend on us to deliver the service they are famous for.

Global reach and support.

We deliver a depth and breadth of customer support that is unsurpassed within the industry, no matter where you are and when you need it. This includes our lifetime service for the entire installed base. Today, our global network of dedicated, local customer support centres covers every major territory worldwide.

“We are looking for the long-term success and not for the short-term profit.”
